

BYLAWS OF REPUBLICAN STATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF WEST VIRGINIA

Preamble

The Republican Party believes that a person's individual rights come from God and the right to govern is loaned to the government by the people. The Declaration of Independence states unequivocally that that "all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness—That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed." The Republican Party is the party of traditional American values - strong national defense, support for law enforcement and the rule of law, fiscal restraint, economic freedom, free enterprise, and traditional values. As Republicans, we are and must be committed to encouraging the broadest possible participation in the affairs of our Party. This party, open to every American citizen, is and must remain the vehicle for free and just government. In accepting membership within the West Virginia Republican Party, an individual assumes the obligation to protect and advance the organization, its principles, values, and its purposes.
